PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Here we are starting our last month of winter, looking at Daylight Savings Time on March 11th, and looking forward to the Ceilidh, Workshop and Ball at the end of March. The Ball Committee is working diligently to get things in order, in shape, and ready. As per other years please keep in mind this prestigious event will need volunteers to assist in some areas. More information on this to follow later in the Fling.

The Annual General Meeting will be held April 26th this year and if you have any items for the Agenda please forward them to Heather Danks no later than April 16, 2007. As in previous years it is intended that no new business will be taken from the floor. I am pleased to report that we have two members who have offered to be on the Nominating Committee this year so you can expect a phone call in the future. The positions of President, Secretary and Social Convener are open. I should like to point out that all of these positions are very important to the success of our Society. For example, in the potential case of the Secretary and Social Convener positions not being filled, there is a danger that bookings for classes and socials will not be done, available dates will be lost to other organizations and, therefore, possibly putting the new dancing year in jeopardy or peril or both. So again, I ask you to give this matter serious consideration.

And finally, I would like to thank all of you who came out to the Valentines social. It was well attended, well organized with tons of good food, and lots of fun. Thank you Basic Class.

Regards, Cheers, and see you on the dance floor.

Bill Greig, President

EXECUTIVE COLUMN

VISCDS ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING - First Notice - April 26, 2007

St. Martin In-The-Fields, 550 Obed Avenue

All members are encouraged to attend

Please submit any business and/or proposals for the AGM in writing to Heather Danks (Secretary) no later than April 16, 2007. No new business will be taken from the floor.

Dem Team

Our demonstration team recently completed three performances for Robbie Burns. Demonstration dancing is a good opportunity to have fun dancing as a team. It is a wonderful opportunity to share Scottish dance and music at many community events. The team practices about two Thursday nights a month and have lots of laughs. You do not need to be an advanced dancer to join. The team is looking for new members and if you are interested, give Joan Axford a call at 474-1018.

With Special Thoughts

We have recently learned that Gordon Robinson's Father died on the February 23rd weekend. Our deepest sympathies and support go out to Gordon, June and Family through this difficult time.

Spring 2007 Workshop & Ball

News from the Registrar

We are counting days now to the annual Spring Workshop and Ball on March 30, 31, and April 1, 2007. Details of workshop choices appear as the last pages of the January 2007 Island Fling, with a Registration form. Places are filling up nicely, with a few remaining for the full package. Other options have vacancies and beginning and intermediate dancers are reminded of the full-day program Saturday designed with their needs and interests in mind. A tip of the hat to the Basic Class! From a total of 13 dancers, six have signed up for the Workshop and one for the Ball.

A reminder for those planning to attend the Ball practices. This year these will be held on SUNDAY; specifically on Sundays March 11, 18, and 25 from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm at St. Martin-in-the-Fields Church, 550 Obed Avenue, Victoria. The charge is $3 per person per practice to cover rental costs for the church. The dances to be reviewed at each session are indicated below. Please be prompt to allow maximum time for teaching in these two-hour practices.

This year we are having a Silent Auction at the Ceilidh on Friday, March 30, at the Esquimalt Legion Hall. Come prepared to choose from an interesting and eclectic selection of items and baskets. Cash and cheques will be accepted – promises, well they are not so good. Come with a smile for a lively and entertaining evening. Smiles are free and, oh, so catching!

Merle Peterson, Registrar

Silent Auction Action

One month to go to the big weekend! Auction donations have been trickling in, however a number of people have indicated they'll be making a donation so we're expecting a bit of a rush in March. If you're still wondering what to put in the silent auction, consider a selection of foods. Gardening things are always popular, as are golf or other leisure activities, or maybe a toy for someone's grandchild.

If anyone has one or two large baskets, we still need some of these. We have enough small ones now.

Feel free to contact Jamie or Maureen at 478-5338 or jas\_orr@yahoo.com

GOOD NEWS: EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1ST TIME CHANGE TO DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME IS NOW THE 2ND SUNDAY (2 A.M.) OF MARCH. THIS WILL BE MARCH 11TH IN 2007.

A Scotsman was invited for a visit to the home of his Canadian friend. Soon after the Scotsman arrived, he glanced out the window to see a huge beast just outside. He pointed, and asked his Canadian friend, "Och, lad, what's that?" The Canadian replied, "Oh, that's a moose." The Scotsman stared in disbelief, and replied, "That's a moose?! Well, how big are yer cats around here?"

2007 Valentines Social

Well, the little kirk on Obed was really rocking Saturday, February 17th. About 40 - 45 dancers came out for the Valentine's Social sponsored by our Monday evening Basic Class. The hall was decorated in theme thanks to the volunteers, of which I was a late entrant in joining, and looked quite nice.

Gordon Robinson had warned the newbies that the call for sets would happen right on the stroke of 7:30 and this is how it went. As Gordon was delayed, Bob Anderson led us into the first sets. Lots of beginner level dances with a few intermediate and advanced dances thrown in there. All the other dancers welcomed us into all types of dances and really helped us along both teaching and encouraging. Thank you all.

After dancing about 100 sets, we broke for a well deserved snack attack. There was an amazing variety of snacks, thanks to all who donated goodies. Then back to the action, Gordon leading, and after a really long strenuous day we didn't dare sit down or we wouldn't be able to get back up ☺

There were a couple of advanced dances that I didn't attempt that night. The advanced dancers looked amazing, but I for one will try more next time, won't we Noel? Good on ya, buddy. I really admired Noel (you had the best kilt) and Rick did you miss any dances at all?? The evening finished with a couple of encores from the advanced dancers that capped a perfect social dance, and Gordon, I hope you did enjoy the one dance you participated in.

Thanks to Rick and Kathryn for organizing the evening and actually all the other work you do for our group. Thanks to the kitchen organizers - the goodies looked and tasted great, the setup and cleanup crews, Teachers Bob and Gordon, and to all the other beginners for putting on, what was for me my first social, a huge success and a lot of fun.

You will see me at the next one for sure.

Keith Wilson, Basic Class

CEILIDH 2007 - sponsored by the Canadian Scottish Regimental Heritage

The Ceilidh is back after a one-year absence. It will take place on March 3, 2007 at the Bay Street Armories. The Military and Celtic music will be provided by The Naden Band of Maritime Forces Pacific, The Band of 5th BC Field Regiment, accompanying Corrine Coell, The Pipes and Drums of the Canadian Scottish Regiment, The Regimental Association, The Cadet Corp, and the Saanich Peninsula Band.

There will be Highland Dancers from the Bonne Accord Highland Dancers under the direction of Lynne Griffiths, and Scottish Country Dancers from the Royal Scottish Country Dance Society, Victoria Branch under the direction of Raymond Thomson.

We are pleased to see the return of the Greater Victoria Police Chorus who delighted the audience with their performance last time. We also have for the first time appearing in the show the Daniel Lapp's House of Music Fiddlers. These are young artists who have performed during the Oak Bay Centennial Celebrations at Windsor Park to the enthusiastic pleasure of the assembled crowd.

The main floor unreserved tickets are: Adults $15.00, Students 13-18 $10.00, and Children 12 and under are free, but must obtain a ticket to ensure a seat is available. The doors and Messes are open at 6:30 pm and the performance begins at 7:30 pm. The audience is requested to be seated by 7:20 pm.

Tickets will be on sale at Munro's Books Government Street and Long and McQuade Music Hillside Avenue during business hours from 16 February to 3 March, 2007. Also, during the same dates at the C Scot R Museum, Tuesday to Friday from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm, and on Thursday evening from 7:30 to 10:00 pm. The Museum and members of the Association will also be selling tickets for a 50-50 raffle to be drawn during the performance. Come and enjoy!

Did you know???

Michael Elcock's latest book, "Writing on Stone" has been nominated for a Saltire Society 'Best Book of the Year Award' in Scotland (non-fiction category). As well, the St. Andrews Society of Los Angeles flew him down to California when the book came out last October as their guest to attend the Seaside Highland Games in Ventura.

Here is the publisher's introduction on the book:

Michael Elcock emigrated to Canada from Scotland when he was twenty-one years old. Since then his life and travels have taken him to many parts of the world-and back to Scotland, many times. In Writing on Stone, Elcock reflects on the immigrant experience, and the questions of memory and identity that come with leaving roots behind, and putting down new ones. Elcock's shrewd observations and humour take us behind the masks that old countries, and new countries, project-and to the importance of people to our reality. To his surprise, Elcock finds that he is not the first member of his family-as he'd supposed-to travel this emigrant route. From the west coast of Canada to the west coast of Scotland-and along the route of the Mounties' Great Trek.

Michael Elcock was born in Forres, Scotland and grew up in Edinburgh and West Africa. He is the author of a travel memoir, A Perfectly Beautiful Place. He lives with his wife and family a few miles outside Victoria, BC.

Are you in spring training for the Ball and Workshop? Here's something to consider ...

The Great Stretching Debate

Our dance classes typically begin with some warming-up movement followed by gentle stretching of the muscles used in dancing. Inventive teachers warm us up in many ways, exploring all the variations on marching round the room, or practising dance patterns with a walking or running step. Stretches are done after the warm-up has increased the blood flow to the muscles; they are held for about 30 seconds and avoid any bouncing movements which might damage the muscles.

Two benefits have been thought to result from stretching during warm-up and also during a cool-down period at the end of class: a reduced risk of injury and reduced muscle spasm and soreness after the class. However, the Strathspey internet list has recently carried reports of medical studies questioning whether these benefits actually occur.

These negative findings seem to be strongest in relation to muscle soreness, with a review article in the British Medical Journal citing five studies which show that "stretching before or after exercising has no effect on delayed onset muscle soreness." Two further studies are said to suggest that "muscle stretching before exercising does not produce meaningful reduction in the risk of injury." The evidence does not absolutely disprove the protective effects of stretching on muscles, but neither does it confirm them.

However, it seems that we should not be too hasty in applying these findings to our own practice in dance classes. During the discussion on Strathspey, Keith Eric Grant (an Scottish country dance instructor who is also a massage therapist) pointed out that the studies reviewed in the BMJ were all carried out on healthy young adults, including students and army recruits. This population, as he writes, is "fairly elastic and less likely to show the effects of cumulative minor injuries and posture dysfunctions. Stretching will not be much of a boon to those who are sufficiently flexible for the range of motion they will need to engage in customary activities." For the rest of us, of course, stretching may still improve flexibility.

Grant's comments also include recommendations on the best way to avoid muscle soreness after exercise. This soreness, he claims, occurs when people exceed their level of conditioning. It results "from micro-damage to the muscle fibres and a subsequent inflammatory response. Conditioning and a gradual build-up of exercise helps, but stretching does not. Prior to exercising, warming up of tissues through gentle movement and slow extension of the movements to full customary range is helpful. This extension of movement could be thought of as gentle stretching."

Aside from the question of how far one can stretch the definition of stretching, we should be clear that stretching and warming up are not the same thing. In fact, one study involving Australian army recruits had all 1,538 subjects do active warm-up exercises, but only half do stretching as well. So the findings are only applicable to the benefits of stretching; the benefits of warming up are not in question. And stretching can still help us by heightening our awareness of our bodies and alerting us to any potential trouble spot if we feel a twinge of discomfort. The RSCDS is apparently working on a warm-up booklet, and we await it with interest.
