PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Greetings to all,

This December Fling has been put together to publish our 34th Annual Ball and Sunday Brunch registration form and will therefore be very brief. I encourage members to check out our Early Bird Rates and send in your registrations soon! If you don't feel quite ready for the Ball, consider attending our low-keyed Sunday Brunch and social dancing at the C & PO's Mess on March 28th – it's a lovely venue and the brunch is delicious.

I am pleased to announce that Walter and Rosemary Balfour have agreed to be 2010 Ball weekend Coordinators. With their many years of experience and involvement with VanIsle, Dora, Rick, Maureen and I are delighted that they are joining our committee to provide able leadership and guidance.

Don't forget to join us for the January 5th 2010 Basic Class Social, 7:30 pm, at St. Martin Church Hall. This event replaces our Open House and will give beginners an opportunity to meet more experienced dancers and encourage them to enjoy more club socials. Members are also invited to bring friends who are interested in watching and/or joining in the dancing.

Remember that the programs for the Christmas and Burns/Ceilidh Socials are included with our November newsletter.

As this is the last newsletter before the New Year, I would like to wish everyone a very happy, healthy holiday season and all the best in 2010.

Joan McIntosh, President

2009 St Andrew's Social

The St. Andrew's social held November 21 was an enormous success by any standards. The hall was tastefully decorated in the blue and white theme with flags of the cross of St. Andrew (thanks to Michelle Campbell), nosegays of heather and vases of flowers. Many dancers also wore blue and white, lending a very festive air to the occasion.

The dances, selected and masterfully briefed by both Monica Roots and Bob Anderson, were of a diverse combination of levels of difficulty. They were enjoyed and appreciated by 6 sets of dancers consistently through the evening.

Thanks to the Wednesday night group for the delicious tea, and to those who remembered to bring their own mugs and plates. (Yes, we can be taught!!) A special thank-you must be given to Barb Walker for her contribution to the draws for the evening in the form of handmade bags complete with mugs, and to Mark Brown whose winning form was both enjoyed and envied!

My particular thanks go to all those who worked in the kitchen and stayed to assist with the cleanup and dismantling after a most delightful event in Van Isle Scottish social form.

GUEST TEACHER AND MUSICIAN

Ruth Jappy grew up with Irish music and dance – especially accordions, having a father and brother who played. She has taught, and husband Alex has played accordion, for the Delta Borderers SCD Class in Vancouver for 30 years as well as a weekly Old Time Dance class for 20 years. Ruth has taught at major workshops in Japan, Australia, and all over North America, including TAC Summer School; always encouraging dancers to strive for the highest personal standards. She is ever ready to help dancers of any level, and to act as a mentor for less experienced teachers. Ruth was presented with an RSCDS Scroll of Honour in 2006. Ruth says: "Music & Dance/Dance & Music - I love them both. These two ingredients cannot be separated and together they become a universal language that bridges many boundaries."

Mary Ross's Scottish Heritage led her to highland dancing and accordion lessons as a child and her love for both dance and music has never diminished. Mary is a member of RSCDS – Victoria Branch and of VISCDS. She has been dancing and playing at events in the Pacific Northwest since the early 1990s. Mary also plays for Irish Dancing Competitions throughout North America, for German Schuplattler Dancers and for Octoberfests. She is accompanist for Scottish entertainer George McDowall and for the Victoria Police Chorus.
