President's Corner December. 2010

Despite the inclement weather, we had a good turnout on Saturday for the St Andrews Social which ended with the lively "Farewell to Auchterader". The January 4th Open House will take place at Dance Victoria's Studio One. (2750 Quadra Street just north of Hillside Avenue). Please bring friends and acquaintances who may be interested in Scottish Country Dancing

Our next big social event will be the Burns Ceilidh and Workshops on January 22nd. Maureen Orr will be organizing a Silent Auction and will be soliciting items from members early in January. Funds raised from the auction allow us to bring in musicians and teachers from locations outside Victoria. Watch the website for more details on the Burns Ceilidh and Workshops as well as the Ball weekend.

Something New

We are very pleased to have been invited to participate in this year's Dance Days program sponsored by Dance Victoria <http://www.dancevictoria.com>. Dance Days is a city-wide ten day dance event intended to showcase the performance of dance through free classes, performances and special events. We have decided to hold a free Friday night Ceilidh designed to encourage participants to take part in the dancing. We are also inviting people to take a free lesson with the February 1st Basic class and the February 3rd Intermediate class. Dance Victoria will be publicizing the event through the media and distributing 5,000 brochures throughout the city. They have also offered us one of their very attractive large studios free of charge for the Ceilidh evening which will take place on Friday February 4th. Be sure to mark this special event on your calendar!

To round off the season we still have the joint Christmas Social on December 11th and the Branch New Year's Social on December 31st both of which will take place at the St Martin-in-the-Fields Church Hall.

Wishing you all a very happy holiday season.

Dora Dempster, President

VISCDs St Andrews Social

The November social, hosted by the Wednesday night class, was held November 20th. Given the weather and a dance in Courtney with Muriel Johnston playing, Bob Anderson was musing about whether or not there would even be a set. In the end, intrepid dancers formed five sets and even two sets plus spares for the 'extras'.

Many thanks to Bob for the programme and patient briefings, and to Michelle Campbell for the flowers on the blue and white theme, plus the flags adorning the walls. The Class wishes to extend thanks those who augmented the feast; there was a plentiful choice and delicious as always. We would also like to acknowledge the work of our social conveners, Wendy Turner and Leona Brown, for organizing the coffee, tea and juice, and also the door prizes. Lovely Starbucks mugs filled with goodies were won by Jacquie Storey and Raymond Thomson.

All in all, it was a most enjoyable event. Many thanks to those who came and all who helped with the myriad of tasks.

RSCDS Branch November Social with Elastic Ceilidh Band

A select group of dancers and friends gathered on November 13 at the Les Passmore Centre for the Branch's monthly social. There were several dancers from Van Isle, and it was particularly nice to see so many dancers from the Comox Valley group. The Elastic Ceilidh Band played some terrific music for the program that Kathryn and Raymond put together. Agnes Dummer greeted us at the door as we arrived.

We started the evening with five sets, and two sets enjoyed the last dance, "De'il Amang the Tailors", with some really great music - the band had put together one of the best sets of tunes I have heard in a long time for that dance. The Branch, augmented by some of our members, supplied some delicious goodies that were served after the dance.

Sincere thanks go to Jean Connon, who organized the evening; to Kathryn and Raymond for a great program and instructive talk-through's; to everyone who helped in the kitchen or with the decorations; to Agnes, who sat patiently by the door throughout the evening; and, of course, to the Elastic Ceilidh Band for an evening of really enjoyable music. And a thank you to everyone who came out, enjoyed the social, and made it all worthwhile.

BURNS Workshop, Social and Ceilidh

Robbie Burns Day is fast approaching. We are excited to have the dynamic Elinor Vandegrift, now residing in Seattle, as our guest teacher at the one day workshop on Saturday January 22 2011. She inspired the teachers in the Fall and now it is our turn. Please complete a registration form and submit it before January 10 for a chance to win a free ceilidh ticket for that evening. The music for the social dance is by The Tartan Players, a Scottish dance band formed in the fall of 2005 and based in BC's Lower Mainland. With their lively playing and signature sound, they have rapidly become a sought after group, and have played dozens of events, including: Scottish Country & Ceilidh dances, Burns Suppers, St. Andrew's soirees, Weddings, and the Hawaiian Highland Games. Normally a 4-5 piece group, they will be playing as a trio for this event, featuring Julie Smith on piano, Deborah Jones on fiddle, and Carole Berger on flute/tin whistle. An invigorating dance experience awaits!

We are seeking volunteers for various things over that weekend: hosting one or two guests for a night or two; driving them on one or more journey; helping with refreshments; and transporting equipment. Please speak to Joan McIntosh (250-477-2512) or Gael Forster (gael@shaw.ca) for more details or to volunteer. We really need you.

The Silent Auction and Ball news

We are holding a Silent Auction again as a fund raiser for the SPRING BALL. (If you haven't done so already, mark your calendars for March 26 and 27!). However, because we hold the actual auction during the CEILIDH, it will take place on Saturday, January 22nd – another date to mark on your calendar! Please start thinking about what you might donate to the auction, here are some points to remember:

- Food and drink are always popular;
- Donate something you would like yourself, of good quality rather than odd bits;
- Our storage space is limited, please don't bring things in until January; and
- Maureen will be visiting classes in January to pick up donations and answer any questions.

Registration for the Spring Ball and Sunday Social will be in the next Fling, (January) however we recommend on-line registration through the VISCDS website. Look for registration forms on the site by December 21. The dance program and briefing notes will also be posted there.

This year, in response to suggestions received, we will also be posting the program and notes for dances at the Sunday Social. This will mean less time walking the dances and more time dancing them. These will be on the website as soon after December 21 as we can manage.

Details in the November Fling or web site at : <http://viscds.ca/events/>

Registration forms to follow in the January Fling
