Presidents Corner March 2013

We have had a busy month with the Open House on January 8th, the Burns Social on January 19th, the Dance Days Ceilidh on February 2nd and the Valentines Tea dance on the afternoon of March 16th. Pat Blair prepared and lead us through a delightful dance program into which she intertwined a creative story line to amuse and entertain us. The Daytime Social class prepared a wonderful tea with artfully decorated tables, tea served in china cups and a festive table of cakes and much more for our delight. The Robbie Burns Social was well attended and we enjoyed dancing to live music by our talented accordionist Mary Ross. We all loved Bob's choice of many of our favorite dances which he took us through with his usual humorous teaching techniques. See later in the newsletter for more on our Burns Social.

The 2013 Dance Days Ceilidh was another huge success with attendance of one hundred and forty-three people including eighty-seven guests. The Elastic Ceilidh Band was in full swing and infused the evening with a joyful and lively accompaniment to the dancing. The teachers amazed me with their ability to successfully direct the large crowd of people in a variety of well-chosen dances. A big thank you to teachers, Bob Anderson, Joan Axford and Sheila McCall who prepared and called the dances. Our members provided a wealth of goodies for all to partake in at the end of the evening and a huge thank you to Sheila Eaglestone who coordinated it all before during and after the dance.

The Demonstration team once again did us proud and Gaelic singer Margaret Chapman enchanted the audience. A dance team formed with sixteen of our dancers gave a well presented and lively performance of Shiftin Bobbins. Guest performers included four delightful young fiddlers from Daniel Lapps B C Fiddle Orchestra and three dancers from the Glengarry School of Celtic dance who wowed us with their performances of highland and step dancing routines choreographed by their teacher Carolyn Cusson. Carolyn's husband, master bagpiper Rene Cusson rounded out the evening with a rousing performance of bagpipe tunes.

The Van Isle Ball and Workshop March 16th, 2013

The Ball Committee has planned a wonderful ball with music by The Tartan Players featuring pianist Julie Smith, Deborah Jones fiddle and flautist Carole Berger. A fine opportunity for dressing up to enjoy a splendid evening at the White Eagle Hall in James Bay. Be sure to arrive early to allow us to assemble for the Grand March at 7:30 pm. The Ball dance program is on our website and in the January newsletter.

Registrations are now coming in for the March 16th afternoon Workshop so send yours off to Maureen Orr soon if you haven't done so yet. (The form is on our website and also in the January newsletter). The workshop is at the basic/intermediate level and suitable for all those who are familiar with basic formations and dances. We are lucky to have Vancouver RSCDS teacher Rebecca Blackhall-Peters to share her considerable experience with us along with pianist Julie Smith who will provide live music. The workshop is also being held at the White Eagle Hall and runs from 1:30 to 4:00 pm.

Membership Soars

We had a record turnout of thirty-two guests at our Open House on January 8th with a full attendance of approximately 70 people in the room. Gordon Robinson did a masterful job of leading this large group of people through a variety of fun dances.

We had a large turnout of new people attend the following Basic classes and in the end seventeen joined the club and a further three joined after the Ceilidh to bring the total number of new dancers so far this year to thirty-four. Add to that figure nineteen former RSCDS Victoria branch members and six returning members to bring us to 59 additional dancers this year and a total membership of one-hundred and forty-one.

Robbie Burns Social Jan 19, 2013

In the year 2013, let it be noted that June Robinson broke a long tradition when she carried in the Haggis as a part of the procession leading up to the toast to the Haggis, a privilege formerly afforded solely to Scottish men! Lead by piper Jamie Orr the procession also included sword bearer Rick Deegan, Gordon Robinson, bearing the scotch and Walter Balfour who gave a splendid toast to the Haggis. From now on June will be known as the first lady of the Haggis.

Bob Anderson put together and lead us through a wonderful program of dances. A big thank you to the Experienced social class who hosted the social and served up a steaming Haggis and a table full of tasty food. Also Joan Axford arranged a skit in which gift bags danced Trip to Bavaria (you had to be there!)

Fifty-seven dancers formed sets to begin an evening of wonderful music and dance, accompanied by Accordionist Mary Ross. Among the guests we welcomed Albertan, Heather Clayton currently studying at Royal Roads University. A beautiful dancer, Heather is on the demonstration team of the RSCDS, Calgary branch. It was nice to see our younger members out in full force, including Sarah Kell, Fiona Warman, Heather Warman, Amanda Cavanaugh and our newest member Sonata Yau.

Among the memorable moments were Mary Ross's selection of music for the dance Butterscotch and Honey. Here's her description of the chosen music:

"The music for Butterscotch and Honey was actually not the RSCD selected lead tune. Being Robert Burns and the beginning of the New Year, I had the privilege to play a set from Alex Jappy's repertoire. He arranged the set and his daughter, Maureen recorded the piano part. Alex is playing the melody on the midi accordion and added a bass and a drum track.

The tunes in the set were "A Guid New Year," "A Man's a Man," "Of All the Airs," (those two being Burn's tunes) concluding with "The Blue Bells of Scotland."

I often ask Alex and Ruth for advice and Alex kindly offered the use of this set. We have the same midi software so I played the melody acoustically overtop his tracks. The effect was a five member band playing.

It is a great set and I am sure that Alex will be delighted to hear that you enjoyed it.

Heather Warman and Paul Weston were given a special surprise when, accompanied by bagpiper, Jamie Orr we all sang Happy Birthday to them and we all enjoyed their birthday cakes. Ann Callander was the lucky winner of the 50/50 draw and received $44.00.

Dance Days Ceilidh February 2nd 2013

In conjunction with Victoria Dance Days, the second annual Ceilidh was held February 2nd at the Victoria Dance Studio on Quadra Street, organized and overseen by Dora Dempster. In addition to the converted and committed Scottish Country dance set, the ceilidh was attended by a great many people of varying ages who were new to this pleasure. The floor was filled to capacity for entire evening with enthusiasm and enjoyment, with an occasional touch of chaos.

After a welcome by Dora, dances were introduced and patiently briefed by Joan Axford, Sheila McCall and Bob Anderson. Interspersed with the dancing was a selection of music by four of the Daniel Ladd fiddlers, a lovely set by some of the Glengarry Dancers, songs by Margaret Chapman, a demonstration of two sets of Shiftin' Bobbins by Van Isle dancers and finally piping by Rene Cusson and an impressive display by the Dem Team under Joan's tutelage. The evening concluded with a vast array of goodies to enjoy.

All in all, it was a most successful event. Thanks to the myriad volunteers who brought the food, manned the sign in and door, welcomed strangers, set up and took down the equipment and chairs, organized the feast and generally epitomized the hospitality for which Scottish Country dancers are known. A special thanks to Dora, Joan, Sheila, Bob and the Elastic Ceilidh Band, whose music was greatly appreciated by dancers and spectators alike.

Valentine social – There were no paper plates at the VISCDs 1st Valentines Afternoon Tea Dance hosted by the Daytime Social class on Feb 16th. Only the finest china would do for the dancers at this social.

Over 50 people arrived to dance the Valentines theme program arranged and briefed by Patricia Blair.

Pat entertained everyone with a tale of two young people by using the titles of the dance to describe the budding love affair of a young "Gentleman" who was a "Sailor" and a "Starry Eyed Lassie" named "Mairi". The love story began with "Kiss Under the Stairs" and wound it's way down to "Side by Side".

Sarah Kell, who is in training for her teaching certificate, took the opportunity to brief a couple of the dances and did a wonderful job.

During the break our guests were treated to a delightful spread of various sandwiches, fruits and desserts. After which they were invited to socialize at one of the eight beautifully laid out tables complete with tea service and centerpieces of gorgeous winter flowers from the gardens of Patricia Blair and Lorraine Irvine.

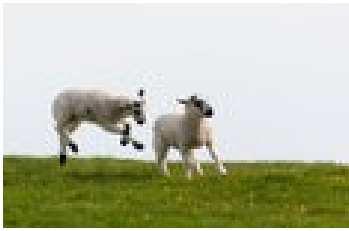

It seems most took our "Tea" dance literally. It was only a few hard core coffee drinkers who chose to fill their cups from the urn. We had to keep the kettles boiling to keep up with demand for tea.

The 50/50 prize of $31.00 was won by David Sinclair.

Many "Thank You's" are in order here. The biggest applause must go to Patricia Blair who inspired the class to try something new. Pat also loaned a lot of the china for this event and, of course, chose the music we most enjoy.

Also thank you to Irene Booth for the collecting admission and to Mary Roberts for selling the 50/50 tickets. Lori Morrison and Heather Hermonson also loaned their fine china for this social. Ian and Heather Danks helped organize the set up and made sure everything continued to run smoothly throughout this event. Many others worked double time to make this social the success it truly was and we thank you.
