

WORKSHOP CLASSES

EXPERIENCED

For experienced and advanced dancers who have a good knowledge of all common formations and steps and are able to dance those dances with common formations with just a brief walk-through.

BASIC/INTERMEDIATE

For those who are attending basic or intermediate weekly classes and are familiar with basic formations and dances.

MUSICIAN

Julie Smith of The Tartan Players.

TEACHER

Mary Murray is originally from Stirlingshire, Scotland and was introduced to Scottish Country Dancing at high school. Since arriving in Canada in the late 1960's, she has been actively involved with the Vancouver Branch of the Society for many years. This has included teaching all levels of classes, directing the Branch demonstration group and also conducting numerous teacher candidate courses for the Vancouver Branch. She has taught at workshops and summer schools extensively throughout Canada and the U.S. Overseas "assignments" have included Australia, Denmark, France, Germany, Hawaii, Indonesia, Hong Kong, Japan, New Zealand, Singapore and the U.K. as well as the annual RSCDS Summer School at St. Andrews on many occasions, and the RSCDS Winter School in Pitlochry.

REGISTRATION FORM

The Tartan Players, formed in 2005, is a Scottish Dance Band which has rapidly become a sought after group, with their lively playing and signature sound. Julie Smith (piano/bandleader) teaches music in public schools, directs choirs and plays for Scottish Country Dance ("Music is my life"). She has attended Master Workshops in Scottish country dance music. Deborah Jones (fiddle) has more than 30 years experience of Scandinavian folk fiddling and has played in the Vancouver Fiddle Orchestra since 1990 (spare time, she is a volunteer streamkeeper).

Carole Berger (flute/whistle) has augmented her BMus with the study of Traditional music at workshops in Boston, Goderich and Vancouver. She has played for Scottish & Irish dancing for over 10 years, and performs weekly at the Irish Heather Pub. Lukasz Wiczorek (fiddle) has played in the West Coast Fiddlers for almost 10 years; he teaches private violin lessons in Langley and plays viola in the Trinity Western University Orchestra.
