PRESIDENT'S CORNER

The new season of dancing has started well with my feet telling me that I am once again abusing them. (a good soak in hot water and Epsom salts works wonders). All classes seem to be fairly well attended. Our first executive meeting of the season was held at the lovely Island home of Monica and Walter Roots where an excellent lunch was served and we must thank Monica and Walter for their kind hospitality. Our first social of the year is Oct. 19th at the Brentwood Bay Community Hall. The executive this year have decided that we will not be having live music due to the higher costs of all rental facilities and we do not want to increase admission prices at this time. Perhaps next year we can again have the live music if our bank account will allow it.

The Ball organization is going full ahead with Janet Rice kindly volunteering to take the chair. She can use all the help she can get so anyone willing to help, please contact her or me. The only way to have a successful weekend is having people willing to work so of the 160 members hopefully a few of you will do so.

The Bell Bus is gearing up for some interesting trips this year so keep reading this column to find out where.

We have already had some visitors to our classes which is always a pleasant experience and good to know that our club is well known throughout the dancing community and that we make visitors welcome.

Thelma Bell, President.

OPEN HOUSE WELCOMES DANCERS NEW AND OLD

Eight sets including more than a dozen new dancers joined in with the fun at the Sept. 9 Open House at McKenzie School in September. And dancers were all ages -- the youngest was a bonnie wee laddie in the dearest little kilt who danced on his daddy's shoulders -- Lauchlan MacUisdin, son of Dixie and Shawn. All the new dancers showed lots of enthusiasm and we hope they have already been welcomed to the beginners' class.

Thanks to Liz Gray for leading the dancing and teaching a few basic steps to newcomers and helping the rest of us loosen up those creaking joints.

EVEN MORE DANCING OPPORTUNITIES

The UVic Scottish Country Dancing class is every Tuesday evening, from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. at the UVic SUB (Student Union Building). Absolutely free! starting right at the beginner level-- People of all ages and background are welcome, just come with comfortable shoes and a smile!

Come on out and try out our dancing class this upcoming Tuesday, we're a friendly bunch, and the music is exceptional, the dancing easy to learn—as Lord Byron once wrote, "On with the Dance, Let Joy be unconfined!"

If you need help with transportation, to or from, let me know,

Garth Martens, Master of Blarney, UVic
Caledonian Club (250) 995 - 1248

RSCDS ENCOURAGES YOUNG PEOPLE TO LEARN SCOTTISH COUNTRY DANCING

Fiona Turnbull born in Perth, Scotland now lives in the North of England. As the Executive Council representative for Seattle Branch of the RSCDS for several years she was visiting the branch and teaching at their Fort Worden weekend school. She took the opportunity to come to the island and attended a class during her stay here. Fiona is the first Youth Director for the society and her brief is to promote Scottish country dancing to children and young adults. During the first three years much has been accomplished. A resource pack for teachers in schools has been produced which includes a book of popular graded dances with background notes for teachers, an audio CD of all the music and a video filmed in an inner city school in Glasgow.

In addition the first ever residential school for young adults aged 18 -30 took place in Stirling Scotland at Easter 2002. This was planned and run by a committee of young people and was so popular that a similar school is planned for here in the north-west. The Youth Weekend West will take place in Vancouver on 16 - 19 May 2003.

Details can be found on www.rscdsvancouver.org other plans from the Youth Committee include medal tests for children and a possible sponsored dancing event in aid of Save the Children.

Do help to encourage the next generation of young dancers by making it possible for them to take part in these events.

with us. For those of you in the Basic class, please know that we were all confused when we started (some of us still are) so don't despair - it is amazing how quickly it all falls into place. The main thing is to enjoy yourself.

The following people have offered to be class reps this year and their help is much appreciated.

- Advanced Technique/Dem Team - Michelle Campbell
- Low Impact - Stella Rennie
- Lower Intermediate - Audrey Hart
- Upper Intermediate - Mary Roberts
- Social - Diane Robinson (pending)
- Basic - TBA

Please do not hesitate to ask if you have questions. If you have chosen to pay "drop in" fees this year please remember to give your $5 per lesson to your class rep.
See you at dancing. Maxine.

THE PLEASURES OF SCOTTISH COUNTRY DANCING

"In them [country dances] all are alike partakers of the pleasure, -- there are no silent, envious gazers, -- no sullen critics to mar the amusement, or intimidate its votaries, -- joyous gaiety animates every countenance, and, while pleasure beams in every eye, the young and old are equally employed in forming the mazy circlets of the dance."

Robert and Joseph Lowe, teachers of dancing, Glasgow, 1822

ANDREW, PATRON SAINT OF SCOTLAND

(and of Fishermen, Sailors, Greece, Russia and Spinsters)

He was a fisherman and a follower of John the Baptist and later, with his brother Peter, became a disciple of Jesus. The precise facts of his life and death are uncertain. However, it is believed that he was crucified in Patras on an X-shaped saltire cross, which is depicted on Scotland's flag and reproduced many times in Scottish Country Dances. He had been put to death for baptizing the wife of a Roman Governor who complained that his now Christian wife would no longer sleep with him. An interesting adjunct to this is Andrew's link to a spinster cult – maidens stripping naked on Andrew's Feast Day believing it would give them visions of their future husband.

A long time after Andrew's death, St. Rule went to Scotland and was joined by a miraculously revived Andrew; together they built St. Andrew's Church after which his following flourished in the west. For 14 centuries his bones in Amalfi have been producing an oil that trickles from his tomb down the aisle of a church – on three days only including St. Andrew's Feast Day, Nov 30. (Andrew's Feast was universal from the sixth century. He had stopped in Fife and built a church which became a centre for evangelisation.) Andrew's head was stolen from Constantinople and given to the Pope, but in 1972 it was returned. Abridged from Saints Preserve Us by Kelly and Rogers 1993 (Thanks to Una Lennam)

PITLOCHRY WORKSHOP,

There is a proposal that if enough dancers are interested, a party might go from Van Isle to the workshop. I've been asked by Thelma to coordinate planning and would welcome expressions of interest from dancers. We'll need about 20 or so to approach Air Canada for special group status, but before taking things too far, it would be useful to know the level of interest. Alex McAuley (595-1607 or amcauley@uvic.ca)
