

Maureen and Jamie Orr are marking their 70th birthdays by holding a Scottish country dance event. Details as follows:

What: The Septuagenarian Stomp - an evening of Scottish country dancing.

When: September 28th, from 7:30 until we're finished.

Where: City Light Church Hall, 550 Obed Avenue (the usual place).

Who's Playing? Mary Ross will delight us all with live (and lively!) music.

Admission is free, but please bring a small something for a potluck supper. Bring your plates and stuff too, again as usual!

The program includes some of the basic dances from the Spring Fling so we ask that dancers of all levels will come and help us celebrate. The dances are:

Shiftin' Bobbins
Dundee Whaler
The Montgomeries' Rant
Scott Meikle
Belle of Bon Accord
Joe McDiarmid's Jig
Bratach Bana
Bonnie Stronshiray

short break

Catch the Wind
McDonald of the Isles
Irish Rover
Sugar Candie
Mairi's Wedding
Glasgow Highlanders
Maxwell's Rant

supper

All dances will be walked.
